

Gifu University 2021 Summer School Online Program Application Guideline

Gifu University 2021 Summer School Online Program is a 2-week program held from 8:45 to 12:00 (JST) between June 23 and July 7, 2021 for students who are interested in Japanese language and culture. In this program, you will:

- experience Japanese immersion language classes taught by native speakers and enhance your Japanese language skills;
- experience local Japanese culture in Gifu and virtually explore cultural and natural sites in the prefecture;
- interact with Japanese elementary students from Aioi Elementary School;
- interact with volunteer Japanese student monitors (from Gifu University);
- take on a virtual tour of Gifu University campus; and
- have the opportunity to network with students from other countries.

Entry Requirements: You can join the program if you meet all the following criteria:

- You are currently enrolled as a full-time student from one of our partner universities.
- You are committed to attend the entire period of the program and participate in all scheduled activities.
- You are willing to comply with the regulations of Japan, Gifu University, and other rules set by the Summer School Program.
- You possess either an N3 or N4 (beginner) level Japanese language proficiency.

Program Fee: 30,000 JPY per student

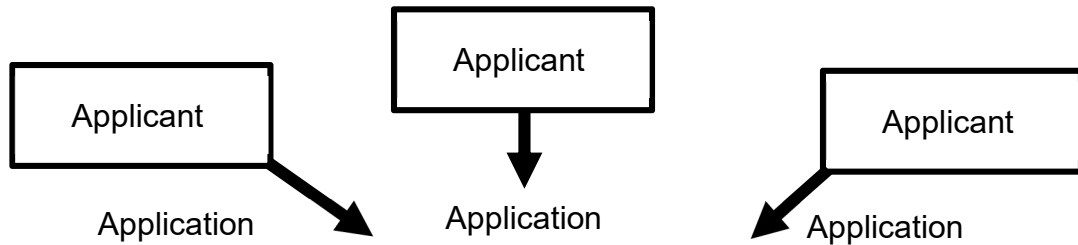

The program fee includes:

- Japanese language classes (including textbook & study materials)
- participation in all scheduled extracurricular Japanese cultural activities
- Provision of Japanese student monitors
- Mailing costs for study materials, Certificate of Completion, and Assessment Report

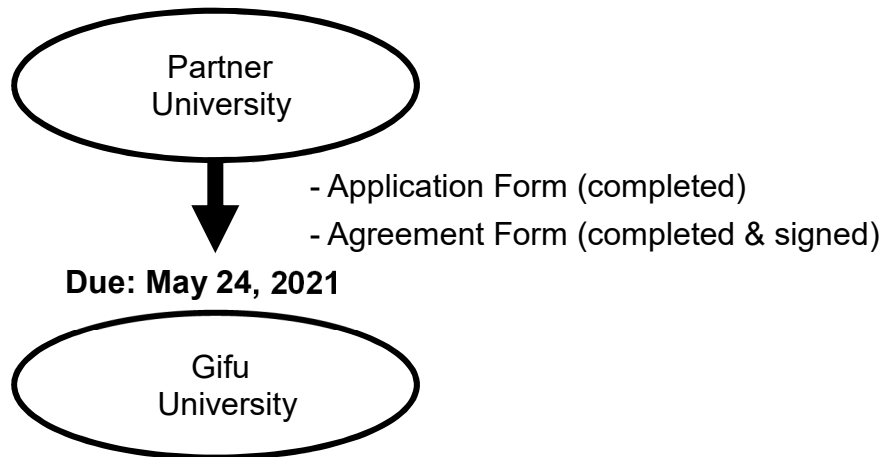

Certificate of Completion: Students who have completed the Summer School Program with 80% (and above) attendance will be issued a “Certificate of Completion.”

Assessment Report: Students who have completed Japanese language classes with 80% (and above) attendance will be issued an Assessment Report.
